

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

CODE ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

Part-time, Union Position

Starting Salary $22.21 Per Hour

The City of Ocean Shores is accepting applications for a part-time Code Enforcement Officer. Duties include but are not limited to: dealing with compliance information and enforcement in the processing disposition of civil and criminal code violations and complaint issues.

Qualifications include high school diploma or equivalent and a Washington State Driver's License with a driving record acceptable to the City's insurance carrier. Experience as an Animal Control Officer, Vehicle ID and Disposition Certificate and VIN Officer training is preferred. Or a combination of education, training, experience which demonstrates knowledge, skills and abilities required to perform all essential job functions.

For a complete job description and application, visit www.osgov.com or contact smadison@osgov.com.

Applications are due at City Hall, 585 Pt. Brown Ave. NW, by 3:00pm on Friday, June 15, 2018 or by email to smadison@osgov.com.

The City of Ocean Shores is an Equal Opportunity Employer.